93 LIVES ARE LOST WHEN SHIP SINKS

French Steamer Emir Goes Down in Collision.

DECEASED DURING A FOG

Only 27 of the Emir's Crew and Passengers Rescued by the Steamer Silvertown—The Collision Occurred in Danish Fog.

The French steamer Emir, founder and 2 miles east of Tarifa, Spain, in the Straits of Gibraltar. Ninety-three persons were drowned.

The ship sailed from Gibraltar for the Moroccan port.

On a dense fog she collided with the British steamer Silvertown bound from Newport, England, for Tientsin, Italy.

The crew of the latter rescued twenty-seven of the Emir's crew and passengers.

The Emir sank a few minutes after the collision. Sixty-nine passengers and twenty-four of the crew went down with the ship. Twelve of the crew and five passengers were rescued.

All the passengers were rescued.

The Emir was a vessel of 1,291 tons and was owned at Marseilles by the Compagnie de Navigation Mixte.

SET OF TEETH FOR TWO.

Broken in Fight; Now Neither Can Eat.

In a soup, hash and the like for the maintenance of Mary Myerly and her husband of Elwood, Ind., food is scarce. Their one set of false teeth which they used in common, was broken in a fight between the two.

Called before the mayor for an attack on her husband, Mrs. Myerly said she was using the teeth when it came her time to eat supper, and that he refused to give them up. She then hit him over the head with a rolling pin. The molars fell from his mouth and the plate was broken.

TWO LOSE LIVES AT AVIATION MEET

Sad Tragedy Marks Sports at Chicago, Ill.

BOTH VICTIMS YOUNG MEN

Both of the Victims Were Amateurs and Both Were Sons of Prominent Families of Chicago and Pittsburg

Two aviators, William R. Badger of Pittsburg, and St. Croix Johnson of Chicago, both young men, lost their lives at the international aviation meet at Chicago, in dying both revealed the frailty of the craft in which two score more aviators were curing and gliding about the air, with scarcely a pause for the deaths of their contemporaries.

Death in both cases was due to an explained accident, probably the result of unsuspected defects in the mechanism of the machines and was in no way caused by carelessness or lack of responsibility of the drivers.

Badger, a wealthy young man, came to his death in a pit in the aviation field. There had been a flaw in one of the wings of the propeller of the Baldwin machine he drove.

Johnson, a wealthy young man, came to his death in a pit in the aviation field. There had been a flaw in one of the wings of the propeller of the Baldwin machine he drove.

LEAD AND STEEL USED ON STRIKERS

British Troops Are Compelled to Attack Rioters at Liverpool.

THOUSANDS OF LABORERS OUT

In Liverpool Alone 50,000 Dockmen Are On Strike. General Labor Revolt On in United Kingdom—Incendiary Fires Mark the Strike in Liverpool.

The troops were called to fire on a mob of strikers at Liverpool. Bayonet charges were made upon the disorderly element.

After rioters had wrecked property in Great Homer street the district troops were called out and ordered to fire. Several volleys were fired. The mob hid in courts and threw bottles at the soldiers, who made bayonet charges in the darkness and fired volleys up the courts.

Six soldiers injured.

Six soldiers and two policemen were injured. The casualties among the rioters is not known. General MacKinnon Wood directed the troops.

The strike committee declared a general strike of all transport workers, including the railway, who up to the last, had refused to go out. The strike will be effective on all the local steamboats and the Mersey ferries.

Seven thousand dockers struck at Birkenhead.

During the day the lockout threatened by the ship owners became effective and 30,000 men were refused employment until they decide to abide by the terms of a recent agreement.

General Strike Declared.

The strike committee declared a general strike of all transport workers, including the railway men, who, up to the last, had refused to go out.

Several fires, believed to have been of incendiary origin, occurred this afternoon. The most serious was at the offices of the shipping federation, which were gutted by the flames.

Great Railroad Strike.

There appears little hope of averting a general railroad strike, which probably will be accompanied by a general labor revolt that will have a tremendous effect on the trade of the United Kingdom.

At a meeting held in London by the managers of all railroads having terminals there, it was resolved that the time had arrived to resist the men's encroachments. The managers intend that the men, by striking, will violate the agreement arrived at after the railway troubles of 1907, under which all disputes were to be referred to conciliation boards or an arbitrator.

This agreement, they say, was to run until 1914.

The meeting was unanimous that the only way to terminate dislocation of business would be to take a firm stand and refuse all concessions to the men. The managers expressed fear that there would be grave troubles on all the railway systems before the present week is ended.

UNIFORM DIVORCE LAWS.

Astor-Force Marriage Spurs Georgia to Ask for Revision of Governors.

Moved by the storm of protest over the Astor-Force marriage, Congress man Howard of Georgia, has introduced a resolution requesting the president to call a convention of governors, with a view to perfecting a uniform divorce law.

The resolution was introduced at a meeting of the governors of the United States, which was held at the White House, and was unanimously adopted.

"I believe a convention of governors should be called by the president to consider the question of a uniform divorce law," said the congressman to day.

"I think all of the laws should be made more stringent. The laws now in force are too lax and in consequence there is an element of idleness and idleness is the worst enemy to which most of us are subjected."

Destroy The Mosquitoes and You Destroy Malaria.

The germ or parasite of malaria can enter the body only by the bite of an Anopheles mosquito, which latter must have previously sucked up the germ along with blood from some other person having malaria of several days' duration. The mosquito is harmless unless it has previously bitten a malaria-infested individual.

Once in a person's blood, the germ, or Plasmodium, as it is called, can continue to reproduce and multiply indefinitely unless killed by medicine, making its victim sicker all the time and gradually or rapidly destroying the blood cells.

The chief important fact about mosquitoes is this: without the existence of standing water their breeding is impossible; furthermore they require at least ten days in such water for development, so that ample time is always ours after rains and floods for the draining and filling of accidental pools. With practically no exceptions, all varieties of mosquito eggs require immersion in water for their incubation. The larval and pupal forms also must live in water in order to develop to the adult or insect stage. It is this peculiarity of which we should take advantage, for by removing all pools and collections of standing water, which permit of removal, we prevent the incubation of eggs and the development of larvae or wigglers.

Where houses and yards are widely separated, it is usually true that each household is responsible for the breeding of its own mosquitoes. All pools and collections of water should be immediately filled or drained to dryness. Small collections which do not permit of this should be sprinkled with crude petroleum or kerosene, enough being put on to form a visible coating over the entire surface. This should be renewed every two weeks and also after every rain. The oil stops up the breathing tubes of the larvae and suffocates them. Ponds and streams should be stocked with fish. The best larva destroyers are top minnows, stickle-back, carp, sun-fish, gold fish. The banks of ponds, lakes and brooks should be kept free from vegetation and lily pads, and stagnation should be prevented; the sides of ditches and drains should be kept vertical and free from weeds and trash. The drains and ditches should be kept clean and given sufficient fall to carry off all water. Kerosene should be run through covered drains and culverts at regular intervals. Among the breeding places liable to be overlooked about the house and yard are the following:

Rain water puddles, disused springs and wells, rain water barrels, cess pools, tin cans, old bottles, water pans for pots or chickens, horse troughs, roof gutters clogged with leaves or trash, knot holes, crevices between branches.

All such should be emptied of their water, given a treatment with kerosene or carefully screened, no water being allowed to stand for a week, if possible.

It is hardly necessary, after all that has been said, to urge the complete screening of all living and sleeping quarters. The difference in ventilation is negligible in spite of prejudice to the contrary, and the expenses are small. If metal screens can not be afforded, ordinary mosquito netting is cheap, will last for some time and is easily renewed.

In the house the use of netting

The Pensacola-Chicago National Highway.

Elba may be in the path of two great National Highways. It has already been announced that the American-Andalusia-Mobile highway will come by Elba, and now there is good prospect for the local through Coffee along the same route of the Pensacola-Chicago-National Highway.

On yesterday the scouting party from Pensacola and Andalusia came by Elba viewing the route for a Gulf to Lakes National Highway. The Pensacola scouts were Dr. S. R. Mallory Kennedy, Col. Frank L. Mayes, editor of the Pensacola Journal, and their drivers, A. M. Avery Jr., and F. C. Brent. They will make their entire trip from Pensacola to Chicago, where they will attend the International Good Roads Congress from September 18th to Oct. 1, 1911.

The Gulf to Lakes scouts were met at Andalusia by a large number of Coffee County citizens, including Judge of Probate S. N. Rowe and County Commissioners, Dyess, Livings, Nichols, and Patrick. They succeeded in bringing by Elba on way to Troy, half of the Pensacola scouts and Edward Doty of Andalusia, the others going by way of Lurvenne to Troy, where all the scouts, including Judge Rowe and other Coffee Countians attended a banquet last night.

The scouts were entertained while in Elba at the Hotel Elba where a splendid dinner was served and several speeches were made, including among the number all of Coffee's Commissioners and Probate Judge S. N. Rowe. These speakers predicted that Coffee will give a big majority in favor of bonds and of good roads on the 16th inst.

Coffee County is located in a section of the country through which will doubtless pass many great national highways extending from important centers and trading places of the north to the Panama Canal now being opened. The National government is going to give liberal aid in constructing these great highways of commerce, and if Coffee County places itself on the side of progress and good roads, building by voting for bonds on the 16th inst., it will probably secure the location of several of these national roads extending toward the Gulf ports.

over beds is advisable. It should be obligatory in the case of the sick. The burning of pyrethrum or so-called Asiatic insect powder, the use of various volatile substances, such as tobacco, camphor, kerosene, turpentine, and the oil of pennyroyal, citronella, eucalyptus, etc., are valuable in keeping the insects away temporarily. They may be destroyed in a closed room by the fumes of burning pyrethrum or flowers of sulphur.

None of the makeshifts last mentioned should be considered of any importance when compared with the destruction of breeding places and the complete screening of homes.—From a Bulletin of the South Carolina state Board of Health.

Judge J. N. Ham Continues To Hold County Court.

Disregarding the act of the legislature recently passed abolishing his court, Judge J. N. Ham came to Elba yesterday and held the regular monthly term of the County Court and passed on several matters. The case of great interest was that of the Elba Drug Co. vs. Pate Lee. This is a fictitious suit filed for the purpose of testing the validity of the recent act of the legislature abolishing the court. Attorneys O. C. Doster, Jr., and M. A. Owen filed the suit, and Riley and Carmichael appeared for Pate Lee.

Representative John E. Pittman who secured the passage of the act abolishing the court, desiring to defend the constitutionality of his law, employed attorneys Carnley and Hickman and R. H. Arrington, who appeared specially to set up the abolition of the County Court, but Judge Ham ruled against Mr. Pittman's attorneys. Messrs. Riley and Carmichael had not been employed by Mr. Pittman but appeared by agreement with the parties for defendant. They filed some pleas and the attorneys for the plaintiff had already prepared their demurrers which they filed and which Judge Ham sustained.

The case will be appealed to the Supreme Court, and when this is done Mr. Pittman's attorneys will appear in defense of the law which he had passed for the abolishment of the court.

The case will be watched with interest, as this is the second time an effort has been made to abolish this court. The lawyers who are fighting to maintain the court contend that Representative Pittman's law is unconstitutional upon several grounds. The case will not be decided by the Supreme court until after next January. If the Supreme Court should declare the court still in existence, the officers of the court will continue to draw their salaries without loss of time and the court will continue to transact business until another session of the legislature, either regular or special is held.

The great majority of the people of the county think this court is an unnecessary burden and expense to the county and want it abolished.

This court was established ten years ago, and during the time it has run the following persons have served as judges in the following order:

Judge J. M. Loftin, Judge J. F. Sanders, Judge H. H. Blackman, and Judge J. N. Ham. Hon. Moses J. Lee and Hon. J. F. Sanders have been solicitors of the court. Mr. Sanders is now solicitor and Judge Ham is now the judge, if the court has not been legally abolished, and they will continue their offices if the court is declared to continue to exist.

If the court has been legally abolished, the Circuit Court and the Justice Courts of the county will have increased jurisdiction, and the county will be saved about $4000.00 a year county court expenses.

That the people of Covington have shown to the world that they are against the sale of whiskey in their county, the officers from the Governor on down, should begin at once to suppress the "blind tigers" and drive them out of their county. And if the officers won't do this, The people should come together in a unite and ask for the resignation of every officer in the county. And then if they don't resign let the people start legal procedure against them to have them impeached.—Graceville Advertiser.

Jokey Discovers in Publicity Bill.

Washington, August 30.—Primary election expense statements from Senators Martin and Swanson, of Virginia, the first to be filed under the new publicity law that went into effect August 19, reached the office of Secretary Bennett of these states, today. In the absence of Mr. Bennett, his office declined to make them public.

Following this declination a careful examination of the new publicity law resulted in the startling disclosure that in the act, presumed to be most drastic, there is no requirement for publicity of the individual statements filed by candidates for the senate or house of representatives.

The law requires the filing not later than ten days before the primary election of individual expense statements and pledges of appointments. There is no provision, however, for the method of making these statements public, that apparently being left to the discretion of the senate's secretary or the house clerk. Much surprise was expressed today when it was found the law was entirely silent on the point.

Congressmen Glass and Jones, of Virginia, contestants in the senatorial primaries to be held September 7, had not submitted their expense statements today and apparently stood in violation of the law.

Secretary Bennett probably will consult Attorney General Wickersham before deciding upon whether the statements shall be given out.

Senator Hayburn, of the committee on privilege and elections, expressed the opinion that all documents on file in the senate secretary's office except those relating to executive sessions were open to the public.

All the talk about the present conditions in Covington county making it hard for officers to enforce the prohibitory laws is foolish. There is a great howl about the increased taxes, but the tax collector will get the dough just the same. If the law regulating taxation can be enforced against public sentiment, surely the law regulating liquor can be enforced when it has the approval of the majority of our citizenship. If the tax collector fails to do his duty he will lose his job, and we see no reason why the same rule should not apply to every officer in Covington county.—Opp Messenger.

No More Calomel For Them.

Persons Who Have Tried Dodson's Liver Tonic Find It Safer Than Calomel and Just as Sure.

Dodson's Liver Tonic is a vegetable substitute for Calomel that starts the Liver to work just as successfully as calomel does, and hundreds of persons have stepped using the powerful drug calomel to use Dodson's Liver Tonic, mild vegetable liquid, instead. Calomel often shakes up the liver too much, and brings on bad after-effects and sometimes salivation—a terrible condition.

Elba Drug Co. sells Dodson's Liver Tonic at fifty cents per large bottle, and guarantees it to be harmless to both children and grown-ups. Remember this guarantee and try a bottle, next time your liver gets lazy.

Even Dothan gave a big major-

With Covington on our west dry, prohibition is safe in Coffee.

Where is Coffee county's Gen-

Yes, The Clipper is for good and could not afford to be against good roads.

The wire grass voters were muchly against the amendment,
"but" they are truly good probi-

Is there any good reason or good sense in being against building good roads in Coffee? We think not.

Don't worry and complain be-meant what they said when they told us they would stand for keeping our prohibition laws. Either would do to trust in congress.

The probate judge and county commissioners of Coffee are enthusiastic for good roads and will build them all over the county as soon as the people will enable them to do so by a bond issue for that purpose.

Judge A. M. Douglas, of the has ruled that the Carmichael and Fuller laws are still in force in Jefferson County. Such is also the opinion of the Attorney General, and he says these laws will continue in effect until the govnize. It would be better if they would continue always in effect.

President Taft's Tariff Board—The Issue.

President Taft has made up the issue for the next presidential campaign by vetoing the farmers free list bill, the wool bill, and the cotton bill passed by the democratic congress recently in extraordinary session. The president was elected upon his pledges to the American people to revise the tariff downward, and he admits that the Payne-Aldrich law fails to give the relief promised, yet when a democratic measure comes to him for his approval and which would give the relief which the country demands, he refuses to give his approval upon the unwarranted excuse that his tariff board has not made its report. This is no reason or excuse for his action in this matter, but simply a miserable subterfuge.
It was simply a cowardly act of the president. He hasn't the courage of his convictions. He wants to succeed himself as president, and he was simply playing politics.

In this veto he made up an issue between the "standpatners" and the "progressives" of his own party as well as between the high tariff republicans and the democratic party. If he had approved these laws, it would have been a victory for the La Follette faction of the republican party, and Mr. Taft would probably have ceased to be leader of either faction of his party. As it is now, Mr. Taft holds his leadership of the "stand pat" element, and will probably have desired aid to capture the nomination of his party next year for re-election. When he has done this, he will again pledge the people tariff revision, but they will not hear him a second time.

The issue then will be the tariff issue, and Taft will stand no show of election. The democrats will win on this issue as they have always done when the people have not been deceived and misled by false pledges. Cleveland was twice elected on this issue, but Cleveland could not give the desired relief because he did not have a democratic congress with him.

Two years of the Payne-Aldrich high tariff law, which President Taft pronounced the best tariff law ever enacted, has almost swept the republicans out of a majority in both Houses of Congress. Now the president has an opportunity to reduce tariff and to show his disapproval of the Payne-Aldrich law, which he says is "indefensible," but he, on the contrary, adheres steadfastly to the high tariff policy and the high cost of living continues by his own act.

This places the responsibility just where it belongs, and demonstrates to the American people the fact that no relief against high tariff laws will ever come through the republican party.

But Mr. Taft has had to show his true colors, and the issue is made up between the two parties and we predict a great victory for the democrats next year as the result of the president's veto of these tariff revision laws. The people will not listen to the paltry excuse rendered by the president for his failure to give relief.

He says he is waiting for his tariff board to act. It will be remembered that this board is one of his own creation and appointment under the Payne-Aldrich law, and being his own child would probably respect and obey the president in these matters.
What is this Board doing any way?
Why don't they report if the president wants them to do so?

Representative Hull, of Ten-ness, in a speech the recent extraordinary session of congress, very plainly exposes this Board in the following language:

"This board has already invited the cohorts of 'predatory wealth' to come on. How much protection will it recommend for the United States Steel Trust? How much for the Sugar Trust? How much for the Woolen Trust? How much for the Agricultural Implement Trust? How much for the Shoe-machine Trust? How much for the beef and hundreds of other trusts? Finally, what amounts will the board recommend as a "reasonable profit" to this immense horde of hungry trusts?
Or, will these trusts fix their own "reasonable profits," as heretofore?
How can Republicans be serious in urging a program so farfetched and ludicrous? Is a Tariff Board necessary to inform Congress that the present tariff rate of 91 per cent. on cheap cotton stockings is too high; that 100 per cent. on cotton underwear is too high; that 121 per cent. on women's dress goods, 121 per cent. on flannels, 90 per cent. on shawls, and rates in like proportion on other necessities are too high and should be reduced at once? The Republican plan would require the masses of the American people to shiver and go hungry through many more winters—awaiting the pleasures of the board—before reducing all these unconscionable rates and thereby giving the people cheaper food and clothing. At the present rate this board will require several years in which to report on all the tariff schedules. In the meantime Congress will be idle; the American people will continue to pay $2,000,000,000 annually as tribute to protectionist greed; hunger, cold, thirst, and untimely death will stalk abroad in the land; and high protection—the "sum of all villainies"—will continue to flourish like a green bay tree.

"The Republican excuse for revision by the aid of a Tariff Board is a false one. This tariff scheme is a Trojan horse with which to deceive and betray well-meaning tariff reformers into the hands of the stand-pat protectionists. Just now many standpatners are posing as ardent downward revisionists through a Tariff Board. They are 'plain-clothes' standpatners, searching for aid and recruits in the camp of tariff reform. They wear no longer the uniform of organized greed that used to gag at the very word 'Tariff Commission.' As the popular demand for relief from tax burdens becomes stronger, Republican promises of downward revision will grow correspondingly louder.
With much show and flourish they will, in words, consign the trusts to 'outer darkness.' Next winter, with a great parade of words and figures, they will, if hard pressed, vow that the country must have real reduction immediately. Then will we witness a great mimic battle for tariff reform.
Doubtless the ex-Senator from Rhode Island, Mr. Aldrich, will be called from his retirement, Cincinnati-like, to command the stand-pat hosts that will wage destructive war on the forces of rapacity and greed. All the other timid tariff jugglers will be called into service. Every tariff magician, conjurer, enchanter, sorcerer, and neocomer will be in great demand. The result will be that the American people will receive a tremendous dose of soporifics, narcotics, opiates, and anodynes. There will be "much sound and fury, signifying nothing."

Gentlemen:--

Your representatives, Daniels & King, have just handed me your draft No. 19035 for $2000, being settlement in full under Policy No. 12216, issued on the life of my late husband, Robert John Prior, of Condor, Ga., who was instantly killed by being struck by a locomotive. I certainly commend your double indemnity clause most highly, which in my particular case pays me two thousand dollars, while a policy without this attractive feature would only have paid me one thousand dollars. The proofs were mailed you on the 6th, and I thank you again and again for so promptly paying this claim.

Yours truly,

The Standard Favors The Bond Issue.

The Standard believes in good roads, and realizes that a system of Standard highways is an imperative necessity in our country if we would keep up with the fast moving progress of the industrial South. We have carefully considered the situation in Escambia County from every angle and are convinced that only through an issue of bonds can the money be obtained for road construction. For this reason we favor the proposition of Escambia County issuing bonds in the sum of $100,000 to be used for this purpose.—Brewster Standard.

Report Estimates Yield of 12,918,200.

Washington, Sept. 2.—A total production of 12,918,200 bales of cotton of the final yield this year is indicated by the department of agriculture's official report of the condition of the growing crop on August 25, made public yesterday.

The estimate of 73.2 per cent condition on Aug. 25th, based on the ratio of the average yield for the past ten years to the average condition of the crops on August 25 for the past ten years, would mean a final yield of 181.65 pounds per acre on the planted area of approximately 34,000,000 acres, allowing for an abandoned acreage of 1,000,000 and provided the crop does not decline or improve from the date the condition was estimated to time of picking.

These estimates of production, while unofficial, were reckoned by the official method adopted by the department of agriculture and used by the crop reporting board in its monthly estimates of the final yield of the present cereal crops of the country. Unofficial advice from the cotton belt indicate the most important declines in the crop were due to severe droughts, hot winds and worms.

Reports indicate that heavy shedding caused by hot weather was the chief factor of deterioration in practically all states, except Louisiana and Mississippi, where there was too much rain. In all other states heat and drought greatly damaged cotton during the month, especially in Texas and Oklahoma.

Since the date on which the condition was taken, August 25, there have been general rains which greatly relieved conditions and considerable improvement is looked for when the October report is issued.

Teachers' Institute.

The Coffee County Teachers' Institute is holding its first session under the new Institute law at Enterprise this week.

The Institute was called to order Monday morning at ten o'clock by Supt. C. H. Byrd. Devotional exercises were conducted by Prof. R. J. H. Simmons of Elba. J. M. Farris of Elba was elected secretary. Short talks were then made by Supt. Byrd, Miss Francis Higgins of Montevallo, and Prof. Simmons, along the lines of importance, attendance and routine work of the institute.

Tuesday morning Prof. Howard Griggs of Montgomery was here to take charge of the institute as director. Routine Institute work was carried by the director and assistants through lectures on various branches taught in the common schools. In the afternoon Prof. J. B. Hobby made an interesting talk on Boys' Corn Clubs. There were thirty-five teachers volunteered to assist Supt. Byrd in organizing Corn Clubs in the county. Supt. Byrd appointed a committee of five from this number together with himself to form the head of this organization. Regular work was carried on Wednesday by director and assistants.

Thursday was set aside by the Superintendent and directors for Trustees Day. A special program for the day was arranged and considered. Splendid speeches were made by: Miss Higgins on School Improvement, Mayor C. W. Simmons on Coffee County Schools, Supt. W. R. Baker of Birmingham on Rural School Graduation, and Pres. E. M. Shackelford of Troy on History. Pres. Shackelford delivered an address at night on Alabama Education. Coffee County trustees are surely interested in their schools as is proved by the goodly number attending. We hope they all returned with minds stocked full of information and hearts bubbling over with enthusiasm.

Routine work will be carried on today (Friday), and the Institute will probably come to a close during the day.

No more sufficient evidence is expressive of the success of the Institute under the law than the prompt attendance and undivided attention on the part of the teachers. Already they are expressing their appreciation to the directors and assistants for the vast store of information gained through their splendid lectures. Minutes and resolutions will appear in Tuesday's issue of the paper.

Good Roads and Farm Values.

The value of farming land depends very largely on the distance from a market. A good road has the effect of shortening the time required for carrying a load of produce to market, which is practically the same thing as shortening the "distance." Howard H. Cross, in the Two Harbors (Minn.) News, relates the story of a hard-headed German farmer at Shobogan, who, in a very graphic and comprehensive way, told of the value of good roads as it appeared to him. He said: "My farm is ten miles from market. If it was only five miles from market it would be worth $15 an acre more. I cannot move my farm in, but if we can build a good road to my farm I can come in the ten miles with my produce easier than I could come in five miles to town."—Farmers Union Guide.
